There is no entry fee for this contest! Businesses are encouraged to decorate the exterior of their buildings for fall and all entries will be judged the day of the Chili Cook-Off by the Chili judges. The top three winners will receive a hand painted yard sign to display outside of their business through November and a plaque to keep in their business.

We hope that you will show your pride in McCloud and participate in this fun and worthwhile event! For questions or further information call Jayne at 964-6566.
